The Who Lives In My Grandmother's Garden? Series

Deniz lives with her grandparents in a house surrounded by a beautiful garden. The garden is teeming with life—ants scurrying about, bees buzzing among the flowers, cats lazily stretching in the sun, sparrows flitting from branch to branch, snowdrops blooming by the pathway, and a grand mulberry tree standing tall. Curious about the wonders around her, Deniz is full of questions about the creatures that call the garden home. With patience and warmth, the adults answer her inquiries, teaching her not only about the animals and plants but also the importance of respecting nature and all its inhabitants. A delightful series with a smooth, engaging narrative and charming illustrations that children with an interest in nature will love to read.

The Three Mosques in My Heart

This book explores the special place of the mosque (masjid) in a believer's life. More than just a physical space for prayer, the mosque is where one closes the door to the world and opens their heart and soul to Allah. It is a sacred place where you stand before your Creator with your good deeds, prayers, memories, and needs—forgetting everything else around you. The mosque is like a window where you pause the rush of life to catch your breath, and a cleansing river that renews your spirit. This heartfelt reflection helps readers understand the deep spiritual connection between a believer and their mosque.

I Have Questions

I used to see a little question mark floating above everything I looked at and nobody else noticed it. The more I asked the right questions, the more those question marks multiplied, blossomed into flowers, and scattered seeds. Over time, the seeds sprouted... and answers began to grow. Turns out, some answers were hidden the questions itself. I am a happy grown-up who plays the "Ask the Right Question" game, and it has led me to meet hundreds of children. In this book, we join curious, colorful minds, kids like you and me and set off together to look for answers. Will you come along?

My Name is Aliya

I am Aliya Izetbegović. A devoted husband, a warm-hearted father, and a loyal son. I am Aliya; a friend, a writer, a thinker. I am Aliya, a grandson fulfilling his grandmother's dream, walking along the shores of Üsküdar with excitement. I am Aliya, a child who never lost hope. I am Aliya, the first President of Bosnia and Herzegovina. A leader who stood tall against oppression, and a believer who bowed only to God. This is not just a story of a man, but a legacy of faith, resilience, and unwavering dignity.
